SHARIA law in UAE is applicable by default to ALL

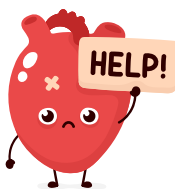

If something happens to you, the law applicable is the one in UAE, and it can be very different than the one in your country.

"But nothing is gonna happen to me..."

FACTS

Every human will die one day, and those who refuse to have this conversation are the most vulnerable.

Main causes of death in the UAE

1. Heart attack

2. Stroke

3. Diabetes

4. Injuries

FACT: This happens every day to people of ALL ages, most of the time it's UNEXPECTED.

Shocking!

INFORM

MISLEAD

The consequences of ignorance are devastating. Look around you and realize how many people are dealing with issues because they were not informed.

Who are the most VULNERABLE?

Married but separated, married, divorced. Problems will arise if the law decides to give your assets to your ex...

You have children or pets. You must assign a guardian immediately in case something happens to you.

You own property or have a business: You must decide who will keep it.

You are an entrepreneur or digital nomad who opened a business in Dubai - If you don't decide what to do with your work, someone else might steal it and take credit for it.

You purchased goods in Dubai - Your lambo, yacht and your Crypto business are at risk if you don't have a Will.

You have a bank account, money, gold in the UAE- Your account will be frozen for a while until someone takes care of it.

Every expat who doesn't have a Will You are not in your home country. Sharia Law applies here. Get all the knowledge you need in ONE day!

YOU WROTE A WILL

- Your legacy is protected and the process will go smooth.
- Your family will be covered and grateful that you were organized.
- Many problems and expenses will be avoided.
- Your legacy will live forever.

YOU DIDN'T WRITE A WILL

- It might take years to figure out the distribution of your assets.
- Your family might not be protected and fight over your assets.
- Strangers might decide over your things or claim your work.

Belief

✓ FACT

"I must go to the lawyer and spend lots of money to write my Will"

In many cases, you don't even need a lawyer and the fees can be relatively small.

If something happens to me, my family is automatically protected"

You will be surprised by the amount of problems that lawyers deal with every day because of this belief.

I am young and healthy, nothing will happen to me"

Statistics prove otherwise, and you also know someone who passed away at a young age.
